

Hiking Information

- Challenging - Friday Creek Ridge: 6-8 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1700-2300 feet, steep trail that leads to open tundra, views of the Alaska Range and the open north.
- Challenging - Alpha Mountain: 5-7 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1900-2200 feet, trail-less route over spongy tundra, some bushwhacking, views of the Alaska Range and lower valley. Not recommended without a guide.
- Challenging - Eldorado Creek: 5-6 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100-200 feet, old mining road, crosses the creek many times, you will get wet. Not recommended without a guide.
- Challenging - Busia Mountain: 5 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of about 1800 feet, begin and end on a primitive trail, some areas are without trails, steep ascent on spongy tundra, views of the Alaska Range and lower valley.
- Challenging - Mining Expedition: 7-8 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1500-1600 feet, old mining road, steep at times, views of mining shacks and the Alaska Range.
- Challenging - Iron Dome: 3 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1000 feet, trail-less steep hike on spongy tundra, views of the Alaska Range.
- Challenging - Camp Ridge: 5-10 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1800-2000 feet, steep trail to open alpine tundra, views of Wonder Lake and the Alaska Range.
- Moderate - Jaboula's Road: 4 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100 feet, old mining road, flooded and washed out at times, views of Moose Creek, Kantishna flatlands and an old miner's cabin. Rubber boots are recommended.
- Moderate - Skyline Drive: 4 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1300 feet, steady incline on an old miners road to a horse hitching post, views of an old miner's shack and the Alaska Range.
- Moderate - Quigley Ridge: 4 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of 1400 feet, steep incline on a primitive trail to the top of the ridge, back down Skyline Drive (old miners' road), views of old miner's shack and the Alaska Range.
- Moderate - Willow Creek Ridge: 3 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of about 1000 feet, primitive trail to open tundra, steep at times, views of Wonder Lake and the Alaska Range.
- Moderate - Discovery Hike: 3 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of about 500 feet, wet spongy tundra, light bushwhacking, views of Wonder Lake and the Alaska Range.
- Moderate - McKinley Bar: 6 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100 feet, National Park maintained trail, views of spruce forest, wetlands and the Alaska Range. Not on map.
- Casual - Blueberry Hill: 2 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 300 feet. National Park maintained trail, steady incline on an established trail, views of Wonder Lake and the Alaska Range.
- Casual - Moose Creek: 3-4 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100 feet, old mining road, at times flooded, views of Moose Creek and a beaver pond.
- Casual - Tundra Trek: 1-2 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100 feet, walk along wet spongy tundra, views of diverse plants.
- Casual - Mineral Monument: 2-3 miles roundtrip, Elevation gain of about 900 feet, this hike is the first section of the Friday Creek Ridge trail, steady incline along an old miners road, views of the lower valley and beaver ponds.
- Casual - Kantishna Casual: 2 miles roundtrip, Elevation change of 100 feet, open wet tundra, views of a beaver pond and Fannie Quigley's house, you may get wet, rubber boots recommended. Not on map.

Please do not approach wildlife or enter any structures. If you are lost while hiking, head towards the Park Road. In case of an emergency, stop any vehicle on the Park Road. Inform a guide before you leave for your hike.