Wickersham Creek Trail

Wickersham Trail begins near Wickersham Dome. The trail follows a forested ridgeline with good views of the Alaska Range and the White Mountains. Trail will pass junction with Trail Creek Trail. The trail will drop steeply at this point for 2.5 miles and then continues to descend gradually through spruce bog lowlands where it crosses Beaver Creek Wild and Scenic River and Where Borealis-LeFevre Cabin is located. This trail commonly has overflow ice in the winter and travelers should be aware. This trail is closed to summer use of ATVs from its intersection with the Trail Creek Trail all the way to the Beaver Creek corridor.
